Riverside Sports Camp

2007 RIVERSIDE SPORTS CAMP

THE CAMPS

The Riverside Sports Camp is designed to teach our participants fundamentals and to improve the technique of each sport. Participants are organized into groups by age and ability. The participants must be currently enrolled in K-12 school.

RIVERSIDE SPORTS CAMP

California School for the Deaf, Riverside is now in its 4th year of camp. Our program has since expanded to include camps for wrestling, volleyball, cheerleading, football and co-ed basketball for two age groups. The cost of the camp is $75 when you sign up before May 30. It will be $100 after May 30. The fee will vary due to your selection. It will cover lodging, meals, training, activities and a T-shirt. Campers will be instructed in ASL. Please log onto:

I give my permission for my son/daughter to participate in the Riverside Sports Camp. I realize that such activity involves the potential for injury which is inherent in all sports. I realize that on rare occasions injuries can result in permanent disability, paralysis, or even death. In the event of injury or illness, school/athletic/camp personnel may take whatever action is deemed necessary to insure proper care and treatment for my child. I have health insurance coverage for my child and understand that none is provided through the camp/school. I also understand that any camper who does not abide by the rules and regulations promulgated by the camp or CSDR is subject to dismissal without reimbursement. By agreeing to participate in the sports camp, you agree to grant videotape/photographs consent to CSDR. There will not be any cause of action by you for damages or injuries which may result from the taking, use, and publication of photographs or videotapes in the manner and for the purpose stated. Without the signature, my son/daughter cannot participate in the camp.
